Insurance Reimbursement Information

1. Is E-Z Flex II covered by my private health insurance or Medicare?

Whether you are eligible for reimbursement by your health insurance depends on your policy. E-Z Flex II is considered durable medical equipment and the following code may be used by your healthcare provider when submitting for reimbursement.

HCPCS code: E1700 Jaw motion rehabilitation system

2. What can be done to help get coverage for E-Z Flex II?

Your healthcare provider can submit documentation of the medical necessity for the use of E-Z Flex II in the treatment of your condition to your insurance company. Your doctor can provide detailed documentation of your diagnosis and course of treatment. There is no guarantee that you will be reimbursed as individual plans vary with respect to coverage.

3. Have your healthcare provider complete the Prescription Form for E-Z Flex II which documents your diagnosis and the medical necessity of the use of E-Z Flex II as the jaw motion rehabilitation system (HCPCS code E1700). Have your healthcare provider send (mail/fax) the Prescription Form for E-Z Flex II to TMD, LLC.
